

November 2025 Prayer Guide

Monday prayer points: Preaching

- Pray for Igor Améstegui, Langham Preaching's Director for Latin America, who is based in Bolivia. Pray that he will know God's help and grace as he leads a large team and makes plans for the future.
- Please pray for Langham Preaching's work in highly sensitive countries, where Christians face persecution. Pray that the Lord will give courage to pastors to attend training workshops despite potential opposition.
- Pray for Oliver Buljat, Langham Preaching's Coordinator for Southern Europe, as he juggles his Langham role and being a local pastor and Bible College teacher.
- Praise God that a new group of Brethren churches in Croatia have asked to start Langham Preaching training. Please pray for this new opportunity.

Tuesday prayer points: Literature

- Continue to pray for Colin Macpherson, Langham's Director of Publisher Development, as he walks alongside indigenous Christian publishing houses around the world. He provides vital behind-the-scenes support to publishers who are facing many challenges.
- Praise God for the appointment of Rosh Philip as the new Distribution Manager for Langham Literature (based at the Service Centre in Carlisle). Pray for Rosh as he gets to grips with the requirements of the role.
- The revised edition of the Africa Bible Commentary is being released this month. Please pray that many pastors, lay leaders, students and ordinary believers will get hold of a copy. Pray they'll be blessed by the contextual commentary on God's Word and the 120+ articles on contemporary issues.
- Lift to the Lord our brother Roman Soloviy, a regional Commissioning Editor who is faithfully serving God in Ukraine. Pray for the impact of recent release 'Beatitudes and Terror', co-edited by Roman, which revisits the Sermon on the Mount in light of the current war in Ukraine. Langham has published the English translation of this book.

Wednesday prayer points: Scholars

- Pray for Elizabeth Hitchcock, Executive Assistant for the Langham Scholars programme, who is based in Suffolk, UK. Pray for wisdom as she handles many tasks to ensure the smooth running of the programme.
- Pray for Dr Éliane Mensah, who has recently begun her role as Scholar Care Coordinator for Langham Scholars who are studying in Francophone Africa. Please pray that Éliane, who lives in Côte d'Ivoire, will forge good relationships with the Scholars and be a blessing to them.

- Pray for K* from Central Asia, who will be one of the first Christians from his country to graduate with a PhD. Pray that his dream to inspire, help and mentor believers in his country will come true!
- Pray for the Scholars Team as they meet in Nairobi, Kenya, for their annual team meeting this month. Pray for safe travels and wisdom in all the discussions that will take place.

Thursday prayer points: UK and Ireland

- Our monthly Langham Live zoom calls take place at the end of the month. Praise God for these times of friendship and fellowship, and pray that more people will attend and be encouraged.
- Pray for Helen Hamilton, LPUKI's Chief Finance Officer, and the rest of the finance team. Pray for clear-thinking, good focus and wise decision-making.
- LPUKI is holding interviews this month for various Supporter Development roles, to increase awareness and support of Langham in the UK and Ireland. Please pray for the candidates and for those interviewing, that the right people will be appointed.

Friday prayer points: International

- "Lord, have mercy on our world" – please pray for our world leaders; pray for our family in war-torn countries; and pray for peace.
- Pray for Cindy Crossley, based in Chichester, in her role as Executive Assistant to Riad Kassis, Langham's International Director. Pray for energy and grace.
- Give thanks to God for our Programme Liaison colleagues, who connect Langham's programmes on the ground with our global fundraising teams. Pray that God will bless Elspeth Mackay and Rachel Butler (based at the Langham Service Centre in Carlisle) in their crucial roles.

Saturday & Sunday prayer points

- As the festive season approaches, pray that Langham's staff around the world will experience afresh the joy and knowledge of Christ our saviour coming into the world.
- Langham staff are often facing challenges and pressures that are "behind closed doors" – yet our Heavenly Father knows all our needs. Please join with them in prayer.
- Pray for Langham's efforts to reach new supporters via its social media platforms. Pray that more people will find out about Langham, engage with the content and support the work.
