

July 2026 Prayer Guide

Monday prayer points: Preaching

- Give thanks for Alex Chiang, who is overseeing preaching training for Hispanic Diaspora in Canada and the US. Last month was busy in Canada, with training for preaching group coordinators and Level Three training workshops. Please pray for all who attended, that the Hispanic Church in Canada would be salt and light in an increasingly secular society.
- Pray for Igor Améstegui in his role as Director for Langham Preaching in Latin America. Pray for wisdom and guidance as he leads his team and plans for the future.
- Last month, preaching training took place on Zoom for preachers across Trinidad and Tobago, led by Andy Oatridge. Praise God for this opportunity, and pray for much fruit as a result of this training.
- Praise God that nearly 16,000 pastors, lay leaders, students and others receive Langham Preaching training around the world each year! Please pray that even more men and women will be equipped to faithfully preach God's Word.

Tuesday prayer points: Literature

- Last month saw the virtual launch of Langham publication 'God's Heart for Child Protection and Safeguarding'. Give thanks for this important resource and pray that it may truly be used for good around the world.
- Praise God for the impact of Langham book 'Breakfast on the Beach' by Johannes van der Bijl, which gives a refreshing new take on the Gospels, focusing on the life of Simon Peter. Pray that it will continue to build up and encourage believers especially in their discipleship.
- Give thanks for Roshi Philip, Langham's Distribution Manager at the Langham Service Centre in Carlisle. He oversaw the distribution of thousands of books to Majority World Bible Colleges through its Library Grants scheme, which closed last month. Pray for Roshi and his team as they plan and prepare for next year's scheme.
- Langham recently published a commentary on 2 Timothy and Titus, as part of the Asia Bible Commentary Series. Please pray that this commentary will have a huge impact, especially on Asian Christian leaders as they seek to apply God's Word in their contexts.

Wednesday prayer points: Scholars

- Pray for Anastasia Zaimi, a church leader in Greece, who was taught and inspired by Langham Graduate Myrto Theocharous. Pray that Anastasia will know God's presence in her ministry.
- Please pray for Dr Lina Toth, Director of the Langham Scholars programme. Please pray that she will have a good time of rest and refreshment over the summer break and pray for the Lord's guidance and wisdom as she and her team make decisions for the future.

- Give thanks for Mia Gener, Langham Scholars Administrator, based in the Philippines. Pray for the Lord's help in her many and varied tasks.
- Pray for the supervisors around the world who are working with Langham Scholars. The supervisor relationship can be one of the most helpful or most frustrating relationships in the PhD journey, so pray that scholars and their supervisors will find ways to work together well.

Thursday prayer points: UK and Ireland

- Give thanks to God for our faithful supporters who attend the Langham Live prayer call on Zoom every month. Please pray that more supporters would get involved in this way.
- Pray for Dr Carl Moeller, President of Langham Partnership USA, who was our guest on the call last month. Pray for wisdom as he navigates leading the fundraising arm in the US.
- LPUKI is exhibiting at various conferences this summer. Please pray for stamina for the staff and volunteers. Pray that many new people at these conferences will become supporters.

Friday prayer points: International

- Please pray urgently about the Ebola crisis in Africa. So far hundreds have died, with many more contracting the disease (which has horrific symptoms). Pray that Ebola will stop spreading – pray especially for our Langham family in the DR Congo and Uganda who are affected by the outbreak. Pray for their safety and protection.
- Praise God for Peter Robinson, the new chair of the Langham Partnership International Council (LPIC). He comes to the role with experience as Vice Chair of the LPIC and Chair of the Board of Langham Partnership Canada. Please pray for Peter as he settles into the role.
- We're excited that more national fundraising teams will be joining Langham in the near future – please pray for unity and good momentum as Langham seeks to further grow its ministries.

Saturday & Sunday prayer points

- As the Summer approaches, please join us in prayer that Langham staff around the world will be able to rest and recharge before the Autumn term begins.
- Continue to pray that younger believers in the UK and Ireland will hear about Langham and be inspired to support us prayerfully and financially.
