

August 2026 Prayer Guide

Monday prayer points: Scholars

- Praise God for Langham Scholar 'Sally'*, who recently shared with supporters about her studies and experiences at home in East Asia. Please pray for courage for Sally, who faces real opposition for her faith. Pray that her Langham-supported studies will be used for God's kingdom.
- Pray for Stefani Morton, based in Michigan, US, in her role as Executive Assistant for the Langham Scholars programme. She oversees follow-up and connection with hundreds of Langham Graduates, who are now serving around the world.
- Give thanks to God for Langham Graduate Dr Oleksandr Geychenko, from Ukraine, who was our guest on Langham Live last month. Please pray for strength in his role as rector of Odesa Theological Seminary during the ongoing devastating war.
- Please pray for our new Langham Graduates (i.e., those who have received their doctorates in the last 12 months). Especially remember those who will be transitioning back to their home countries in the next few months and maybe picking up new responsibilities with their sending institutions.

Name changed for security reasons*

Tuesday prayer points: Preaching

- Last month, we said farewell to Ruth Slater, Associate Director of Langham Preaching, who has moved on to pastures new. Praise God for the huge impact Ruth has had over the last 18 and a half years. Please pray for God's wisdom and guidance as the leadership team make decisions about recruitment.
- Pray for our administrators around the world who work hard behind the scenes assisting in the smooth operational running of Langham Preaching. They are based in Bolivia, Ghana, UK, Indonesia, India and Egypt.
- Pray for Dwi Handayani, Director of Langham Preaching in Asia & the South Pacific. Pray for stamina, focus and a close walk with the Lord.
- Last month in a West African country, over 100 people took part in various levels of Langham Preaching training. Pray for each of these preachers, serving in a country where Christians face much hostility.

Wednesday prayer points: Literature

- Praise God that the Korean translation of Langham book 'Sarah's Laughter' has received an award by the South Korean Government! They will purchase many copies to be made available in public libraries. Please pray that people across South Korea will be touched by this thoughtful book, which deals sensitively with the topic of suffering and grief.

- Please pray for the writing projects that are being commissioned and written. Give thanks for the authors' talents in serving the Kingdom of God and for wisdom, perseverance, peace, clarity, and strength.
- Pray for the impact of new Langham release 'What do you believe?' by Hannes Wiher. It gives practical models for understanding global religions.
- Pray for Luke Lewis, who is the Director of Langham Publishing and lives in Carlisle, UK. Pray for wisdom and grace for Luke, in the many different tasks he undertakes to give a platform for Majority World believers through publishing their books.

Thursday prayer points: UK and Ireland

- Please keep praying for Langham UKI's partnership with Operation Mobilisation, during its 'Waves of Hope' tour. Langham is hosting events on board the Logos Hope ship at several locations across the UK.
- Pray for LPUKI's Deputy Development Manager Mark Armstrong as he represents Langham at the Kinfire convention in Ireland this month. Pray that attendees will be enthused about and inspired by our work around the world.

Friday prayer points: International

- Remember in your prayers our programme directors (Paul Windsor – Preaching, Lina Toth – Scholars, Hani Hanna – Literature) as tough decisions are made regarding budgets and finances. Pray for wisdom and unity.
- Wars are raging around the world, including in countries such as Ukraine. Pray for the light of the Gospel to shine brightly in these places and for God to comfort His people.

Saturday & Sunday prayer points

- Keep praying for good times of refreshment and relaxation for Langham staff around the world over these summer months.
- Pray for Langham's International Director Dr Riad Kassis, and his wife and family, based in Lebanon. Pray for safety, strength and much grace and patience.
