October 2026

- Please pray for the International Leadership Team and International Council as they meet online from 19th-25th October. Please pray that even though this isn't an ideal way of meeting that God would grant wisdom, discernment and creative thinking for the decisions that need to be made.
- The Catalogues for the 2026/2027 Library Grant Programme are currently in production (one in English and one in French). Pray that all the various elements will come together in a timely way and that there will be no unnecessary delays.
- Please pray for Roman Soloviy and Luke Lewis who are attending the European Evangelical Alliance conference Hope 2026 and the Fellowship of European Evangelical Theologians annual conference in Albania
- Pray for the people at Angolan publishing ministry Editora Quitanda. This is the first year of their operations in Africa and Langham is supporting them to pursue their long-held vision to serve Portuguese speaking Africa with locally authored books. With Langham's up-front help, they aim to grow a new generation of writers who can equip a new generation of preachers. Pray for founder Tomas Camba as he works relentlessly to raise the profile and reputation of Quitanda in Africa. Give thanks for some amazing connections and contracts made so far. Pray especially for their impact through resources that can open and explain scripture and help strengthen the church.
- Small Preaching Group handbook is in the process of being produced. Pray for those that are helping with production and those that are in the process of writing. Alongside distributing this handbook into every preaching movement, creating a video-resource that equips Coordinators in the use of the Manual.
- Continental Leadership Team meeting and Bolivia escuelita gathering (31st Oct - 6th Nov). Pray for God's guidance and presence throughout the Continental Leadership Team meeting and the Bolivia escuelita gathering. Ask for fruitful discussions, wise decision-making, encouraging fellowship, and a clear sense of God's direction for the ministry. Pray that all participants would be strengthened, refreshed, and united in their shared mission.
- A Facilitator Workshop will take place in Brussels this month. Pray that these facilitators will be inspired by the training that they receive and will feel equipped to serve others in this capacity.
- A scholar from Madagascar will come to the end of a two-month study residency at Tyndale House, UK, during October 2026. Pray that this time will enable him to make meaningful progress in writing his dissertation and that he will be able to maintain this momentum even when he returns home.
- A graduate from Uganda will be presenting a paper at a conference at Calvin Seminary in the US. Pray for good travel logistics and for good relationships and connections to be built at this conference.

November 2026

- Please pray for the publishing team as they attend Evangelical Theological Society Annual meeting 17th-19th November and Society of Biblical Literature Annual meeting 21st- 24th November, in Denver, USA.
- November marks the second anniversary of the birth and establishment of Onesimus Theological Publishing in Addis Ababa in Ethiopia. Langham has been assisting a very talented and visionary group of Ethiopian believers to establish their own publishing ministry. Give thanks for tremendous progress, above and beyond expectations, for 20 high-quality theological commentaries and titles already produced and selling out fast. Pray for founder Tekalign Duguma as he learns lots of new skills and balances many duties. Pray for editors Hiab and Naji, and for their numerous Ethiopian authors that, through them, God would bless his Church across Ethiopia. Pray for an impactful launch of a new raft of titles at their conference in November.
- This month sees the annual gathering of our Langham Preaching Global Leadership Team in Colombo, Sri Lanka. Please pray for a time when relationships are deepened and our working together increases.
- In Liberia, the African Preaching Movement Coordinators and Ushirika Coordinators will meet together for a Consultation. Key representatives will attend for a time of fellowship, learning and strategic planning for the continent. Pray for safety in travel, for successful visa applications where necessary and for those who will facilitate and lead sessions.
- Pray for those scholars who are living and studying in the midst of ongoing war, conflict, or significant health crises. Ask the Lord to protect them, strengthen them, and give them peace and wisdom as they continue their studies in the midst of difficult and uncertain circumstances.
- A graduate from Nigeria will be undertaking a writing sabbatical in the UK through the middle of December. While there, he will be working on several articles and book projects. Pray for safe travel and clarity for research and writing.

December 2026

- Please pray for the International Program Directors as they meet together, finding ways to coordinate the work of Langham around the world.
- Please pray for refreshment as people take time off over the Christmas holidays.
- Pray for the Regional Commissioning Editors Liz Mburu, Yacouba Sanon, Rico Villanueva, Hani Hanna and Roman Soloviy. Pray for their work in finding authors to meet the needs of their regions.
- Pray for the people and ministry of Ediciones Puma in Lima, Peru. With pump-priming support from Langham, they have embarked upon a major project to develop a unique series of OT commentaries, using scholars from all over Latin America. It is being written to resonate with local believers in its style and tone, and connect scripture to the context in Latin America. Pray for the 19 authors - for wisdom, rigour, insight, sensitivity to local needs and perseverance.

- Pray for the publishing and distribution of the Locally Raised Support Manual, and for opportunities to translate it wherever possible. Pray that it would become a meaningful part of the life of the ministry at every level. Ask God to inspire each continent, region, and preaching movement to take initiative in this area, whether through large or small steps, and that these efforts would lead to greater fruitfulness in ministry.
- A new resource is in the process of being produced looking at our learning outcomes of 'Christlike in Character'. Articles have been submitted from contributors all around the world. Pray for those that are helping with production and those that are in the process of writing.
- Pray for scholars who are celebrating the holidays away from their home countries. Pray that local churches will include them in celebrations and help them to feel connected even when they are away from family and their own cultural traditions.

January 2027

- Please pray for the scholars studying with the International Baptist Theological Study Centre in the Netherlands as they gather for their annual research colloquium at the beginning of February 2027. Pray that they would be able to get visas for travel; the Lord would give them wisdom, clarity, and confidence as they prepare and present their research papers, and that their meetings with Supervisors would be encouraging, fruitful, and helpful as they continue with their studies.
- For the evangelical publishers around the world, it is a month of reviewing and planning. Pray that they may be encouraged to persevere in what can be a difficult and wearying job. Pray for energy and creativity in making Biblical truths public through writing and publishing.
- Please pray for the ongoing work of the French edition of the Africa Bible Commentary (second edition)
- Pray for our Continental Directors who oversee the staff teams in Latin America, Europe, the Caribbean, Africa, Asia and the South Pacific. Pray for wisdom and strength as they lead disparate teams around the world from diverse backgrounds and cultures.
- Pray for the work of Langham Preaching Connect. Each continental team has members involved who are working together with other continents to provide resources to help people to teach and train. Pray for those in the teams that are committed to training facilitators who in turn can train others.

February 2027

- The 2026/2027 Library Grant season is now underway. Pray for all the logistics involved in sending books to colleges. Pray that the books will all arrive at their destination without too much delay in the shipping process.
- Langham serves evangelical publishers in a number of very difficult contexts such as Myanmar, Vietnam, Central Asia, Ukraine, Pakistan, Belarus, Russia, and others. These publishers need huge wisdom and patience, and a unique mix of boldness and caution. Pray for safety, courage, impact, encouragement, and fruitfulness as they minister in very uncertain and sometimes hostile places.
- Pray for the development of a growing collection of video and digital resources to support training, including resources connected with Langham Preaching Resources books, HELPs, and the achievement of learning outcomes. Pray for wisdom in deciding what resources are most needed and how best to communicate them. Ask God to guide those producing, recording, editing, and sharing the materials, and that platforms such as YouTube would be used effectively to make these resources accessible and useful around the world.
- Pray for scholars who are working towards completing and submitting their dissertations so that they may defend their research and graduate this year. Pray for perseverance, wisdom, clarity, and God's provision as they bring their studies to completion.

March 2027

- Please pray for our production and editorial team working both globally and in the distribution center in Carlisle
- Pray for the Majority World Writers who write for the believers, preachers and students in their local heart-languages. Pray for deep insight into the local issues and worldview and how scripture speaks into these.
- The need for more resources in heart languages continues to increase. Pray for authors and translators to be encouraged in their skills so that our participants can fully access resources which enable them to learn and train others in the most effective way possible.
- In the absence of in-person events this year, pray for meaningful and creative ways for the Scholar Care Coordinators to build connection, encouragement, and community with the Scholars in their regions.
- Pray for the ICETE global consultation taking place the first week of April. This global gathering includes many people from Langham Literature, Scholars, and Graduates, as well as many Langham partners. Pray for the many logistics needed for an event this size and for the relationships that will form and deepen as people gather.
