November 2026 Prayer Guide

Monday prayer points: Scholars

- Pray for Langham Scholar Pablo (Paul) Johnson, from Argentina, who is studying for a PhD at Cambridge University. Pray that the Lord would open doors for him to start a seminary within the Presbyterian denomination in Argentina.

- Give thanks for Mia Gener, Langham Scholars Administrator, based in the Philippines. Pray for the Lord's help in her many and varied tasks.

- Pray for Langham Scholar 'C', from the Indonesia, who is undertaking a residency at the Oxford Centre for Mission Studies until January. Pray for good focus, helpful resources and useful connections whilst C is in the UK.

- Please pray for Dr Lina Toth, Director of the Langham Scholars programme. Pray for energy and strength as she spins many plates!

Name not used for security reasons.*

Tuesday prayer points: Preaching

- Pray for Armand Dzadu, Langham Preaching's Regional Coordinator for West Africa, especially as he also oversees Langham Preaching's work in Francophone countries in Africa. Praise God that their approach focusing on small preaching groups is proving to be highly effective.

- Praise God that in the midst of financial difficulty, the Langham Preaching movement in Asia & South Pacific is thriving! In West Papua, a place considered 'underdeveloped', the team has raised its own funds, and started a new movement on a different island called Maluku.

- In late October/early November, a national gathering of preaching clubs (70 people) took place in Bolivia, along with a 'training of trainers' workshop for 16 people. Pray that consequently strong preaching skills will be developed, and Christlike characters will be nurtured.

- Pray for 'P', in a Central Asian country, in his role as global coordinator for 'local facilitator development'. This is a highly strategic role as he seeks to train indigenous trainers. Pray for perseverance, wisdom and guidance in all he does for the Lord.

Name not used for security reasons.*

Wednesday prayer points: Literature

- November marks the 2nd anniversary of the launch of 'Onesimus' publishing house in Ethiopia. Langham is supporting a talented group of Ethiopian believers to establish Onesimus. Praise God that 20 high-quality theological commentaries and titles have already been produced and are selling out fast. Pray for founder Tekalign Duguma as he learns new skills and for editors Hiab and Naji and numerous Ethiopian authors they're working with.

- Give thanks for Luke Lewis, Director of Langham Publishing, who was our guest on Langham Live last month. Please pray that God would continue to uphold Luke in his crucial role, based at the Langham Service Centre in Carlisle.

- Various members of the Langham Publishing team are attending several events this month, including in Malaysia, the UK and the USA. Pray for safe travels, good health for the staff and encouraging conversations and connections.

- Pray for the literature distribution team, based at the Langham Service Centre, as they prepare for the library grant season which is starting soon. Thousands of books will be shipped from there to hundreds of Bible Colleges around the world.

Thursday prayer points: UK and Ireland

- This month, Langham will be hosting an event on board the OM ship Logos Hope in Liverpool. Please pray that many will attend and be encouraged to find out more about Langham's work around the world.

- Pray for the impact of Langham supporter David Cupples' new podcast 'Little Christs', which was launched in September. David seeks to explore what it means to become like Jesus Christ and how that process happens. You can listen wherever you get your podcasts, simply search for Little Christs.

- Early in November, LPUKI's board of trustees is meeting in London. Pray for smooth logistics, helpful discussions and wise decision-making.

Friday prayer points: International

- We urge you to continue to pray for our dear brothers and sisters in Ukraine at this time. Pray that God would bring about a 'just peace' and that He would comfort and uphold His people.

- Pray for Peter Robinson, the new chair of the Langham Partnership International Council (LPIC). Pray that God would give Peter wisdom and discernment as important plans are made and decisions taken.

- Please keep praying for Langham Netherlands, a relatively new fundraising team led by Jaap Haasnoot. They've got off to a great start in raising funds and awareness. Pray that more believers across the region would be inspired to start supporting our global ministries.

Saturday & Sunday prayer points

- Pray that more people will decide to leave Langham a gift in their will, as a way of serving the global Church long into the future.

- Our bi-annual print magazine 'Transform' is released this month. Please pray that this valuable resource will get into the hands of many people across the UK and Ireland, inspiring people to support Langham's global ministries.